AUCTION RULES

1. Total Registration: 84

Each team must have at least 15 players.

- i. Each team must use coins to buy players until their minimum player quota is reached.
- ii. After reaching the minimum player quota, a team may choose not to bid for additional players. In that case, the team will receive a player by default (in the event of any collusion, a lottery will determine the assignment).
- iii. Each team may acquire a maximum of one player per category.

2. Bidding

- Team registration fee: 2500 BDT per team.
- Highest bid wins.
 - i. The base price for each category is listed above that category.
 - ii. Each team receives 4500 coins upon registration.
 - iii. If a team exceeds its current coin balance, it may purchase additional coins as follows:
 - a. 500 coins for 500 BDT (once only).
 - b. 500 coins for 1000 BDT (up to five times).
 - c. 500 coins for 3000 BDT (unlimited).
 - If a team runs out of coins during bidding, it must purchase the required coins immediately before the next player bid.

- If a team chooses not to bid on any further players, it must pay the base price for each remaining category to receive a player via lottery. (Once a team stops bidding, it cannot resume bidding on any players.)
- Extra coins are non-refundable.

iv. Minimum bid increments:

- a. 25 coins when the current bid is ≤ 300 .
- b. 50 coins when the current bid is ≤ 600 .
- c. 100 coins when the current bid is > 600 .

3. Cooperation

Each team must cooperate with the organizing committee to ensure the auction runs smoothly.

4. Conduct

No players or team officials may engage in any disruptive or unexpected behavior.

5. Disputes

Any disputes must be raised immediately during the auction by the team managers.

The organizing committee will review them instantly.

6. Finality

The committee's decision is final.

Rules are to be strictly maintained
