Do you think what there a difference in authority and influence?

If you think then write down the difference.

Authority: Authority is the formal or legal right conferred on a person or a group of people/persons to make and enforce laws or policies which the citizens obey.

Authority defined as "Power to give orders or make decisions: The power, or right to direct or control someone or something".

Influence define as "Power to change or effect someone or something: The power to cause changes without directly forcing them to happen."

Briefly explain the types of legitimacy. (Ans)

According to Aristotle. Give the idea about six types of traditional government.

First principle: The number of person who exercise supreme power in the state.

Second principle: The ends for which supreme power is exercised, which may be either for the good of ruled or of the rulers.

According to the first principle there may be in state either one ruler, or few or many.

If there is one ruler, The state is a monarchy.

If there are few rulers, The state is aristocracy.

If there are many rulers, The state is polity.

Aristotle classified government into three

1. Government based on rule by one
2. Government based on rule by few
3. Government based on rule by many.

1. Government based on rule by the one:

Government based on	correct	Deviant Perverse
One ruler	Monarchy	Tyranny

2. Government based on rule by the few.

Government	correct	Deviant perverse
Few rulers	Aristocracy	oligarchy

3. Government based on rule by the many.

Government	correct	Deviant Perverse
many rulers	polity	democracy

Mention the types of modern government:

leacock's classification.:

First he divides them into two classes

1. Despotie
2. Democratic

In a despotie state, one man exercises supreme power without any reference to the will or wishes of the people.

In democratic state, supreme power rests ultimately with the people. Democracies are further divided into limited monarchies. In a limited monarchy, a king or queen is the head of the state but he/she exercises only limited, while the real power is in the hands of a ~~so~~ legislature.

Monarchy	Democracy	Government
limited	unlimited	unlimited
limited	unlimited	unlimited
